

Second Quarter 2016 Investor Presentation

June 30, 2016

Safe Harbor Statement and Non-GAAP Financial Measures

Certain statements made in this presentation should be considered forward-looking as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements give expectations or forecasts of future events. These statements are related to our intentions, beliefs, projections, estimations or forecasts of future events or our future financial performance and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our actual results to be materially different from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. These statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. They use words such as “anticipate,” “estimate,” “expect,” “project,” “intend,” “plan,” “believe” and other words and terms of similar meaning in connection with a discussion of future operating or financial performance. We caution investors that these forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, and actual results may differ materially. Investors should consider the important risks and uncertainties that may cause such differences, including those risks discussed in our most recent Form 10-K and Form 10-Q filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Our forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this presentation or as of the date they were made, and we undertake no obligation to update those statements.

The historical and forward-looking financial information contained in this presentation includes financial measures which are based on methodologies other than Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (“GAAP”) such as operating income, operating earnings per share, pre-tax reporting segment income excluding DAC/VIF unlocking and book value per share excluding some components of accumulated other comprehensive income. A reconciliation of non-GAAP measures to the closest GAAP measures is available in our earnings release.

In addition to finding more educator households, we are focused on expanding our cross-line penetration

Educator Household Distribution by Product⁽¹⁾

- Cross-line penetration significantly exceeds industry
- Significant additional cross sell opportunities within our existing customer base of ~360,000 educator households
 - 45% of educator households are buying only P&C products
 - 35% of educator households are buying only Annuity/Life products
- Targeted marketing efforts underway to drive more cross-line sales

(1) HMN data: ~360,000 educator households as of June 2016; Cross-line households defined as Auto and/or Property plus Annuity, Life and/or Group
 (2) Industry data per LIMRA, 2011 multiline exclusive agent average

Segment strategy and results

Annuity segment – Helping educators meet their financial goals with tailored solutions

Opportunity

- Educators face complicated retirement system offerings
 - Differing state teacher retirement systems (STRS)
 - Pension uncertainty
 - Tax-deferred options
- Educators want guidance to plan for the future
 - Student loan solutions seminars
 - Financial literacy workshops
 - STRS workshops
 - Classroom funding assistance
 - Encourage redirecting savings to retirement planning
 - Options for school payroll deductions

Product

- 92% of Annuity assets under management are tax-qualified accounts with a retirement orientation
 - Consistent strong persistency ~95%
 - 403(b) and 457(b) are viable products in current regulatory environment
 - Launched Fixed Indexed Annuity in Q1 2014

(1) Based on Assets Under Management as of June 30, 2016

Annuity segment – Assets under management continue to grow

Results

- Annuity product sales remain strong
- Assets under management increased 3% in the quarter to $6.1 billion
- Disciplined crediting rate actions and prudent investment management have resulted in favorable net interest spreads
 - New business spreads continue to exceed targets
- Business is priced to generate a low double-digit ROE at targeted spreads of 200 to 250 bps

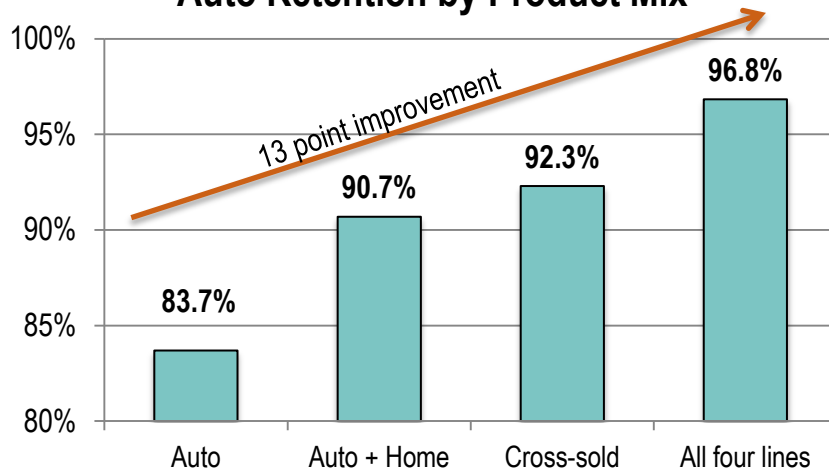

P&C segment – Preferred book of educator risk with strong retention ratios

P&C Net Written Premium ($606 MM)⁽¹⁾

Auto Retention by Product Mix⁽²⁾

Opportunity

- Preferred risk profile
 - Conservative by nature
 - Short/off-hour commutes
 - Financially responsible
- Reach new educators and cross-sell to our existing Annuity and Life customers

Product

- Majority of P&C business is bundled Auto and Property
- Policy retention exceeds industry averages and improves with cross-sell efforts
 - 84% Auto
 - 88% Property

(1) Based on FY15

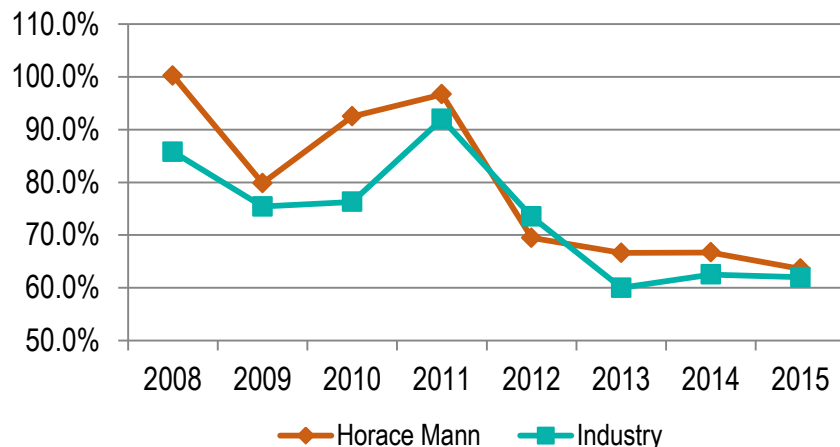

(2) HMN data: ~360,000 educator households as of June 2016; Cross-sold households defined as Auto and Property plus Annuity and/or Life

P&C segment – 1H16 auto combined ratio reflects macro pressures

Auto Loss Ratio vs Industry⁽¹⁾

Homeowners Loss Ratio vs Industry⁽¹⁾

Results

- 1H16 auto results impacted by adverse weather trends
 - 4.5 points of catastrophe losses; increases in weather-related frequency
 - Increasing mid-single digit rate plan in response to higher loss trends
- Auto loss ratio averaging nearly 5 points better than the industry (2008-15)
 - Severity trends appear to be stabilizing
- Property loss ratio improvement tracking better than the industry
 - Underwriting initiatives positively impact underlying results
- Mid-90s reported combined ratio would generate a 12% ROE at 1.5x underwriting leverage

(1) A.M. Best industry composite based on statutory incurred losses

Life segment – Sizable opportunity in our middle-market educator niche

Individual insurance in force⁽¹⁾

- Traditional Term
- Experience Life
- Traditional Whole Life & IUL

Opportunity

- Tailored product suite to cross-sell to our existing P&C and Annuity customers
- Dedicated field support team to help agents educate customers about options and costs

Products

- Basic coverages appropriate for educator income levels
 - Indexed universal life product
 - Term insurance
 - Traditional whole life
 - Single-premium whole life
- Mature in-force book of whole and term life products
 - About 201,000 policies
 - Average face amount of ~ $98,000; ~ 96% retention ratio for individual life

(1) Face amount in force as of June 30, 2016

Life segment – Profitable inforce block with renewed growth

Life Statutory Incurred Claims
(including regression curve & +/- 5% corridor)

Results

- Strategic focus to grow this segment of profitable business at a double-digit pace
- 1H 2016 ex-DAC life earnings of $8.4 million, up from $6.9 million in 1H 2015
- Life sales increased approximately $2 million YTD, largely due to the favorable reception of our Indexed Universal Life product
- Business is priced to generate a low double-digit ROE

Multiline business model has generated solid operating earnings

Operating Earnings by Segment⁽¹⁾

CY Est.
$1.80
to $2.00

Operating ROE⁽²⁾

- Operating earnings per share⁽¹⁾ have grown 7% on a compound average annual basis, led by Annuity and P&C
 - Strong Annuity sales, assets under management growth, and proactive spread management have generated 14% earnings growth CAGR
 - Continued solid P&C profitability, with emerging signs of PIF growth
 - Life earnings reflect the maturity of in force block
- Investing in all three business segments to accelerate Operating EPS growth and improve ROE over time
- For 2016, expect operating income of $1.80-$2.00 per share
 - P&C combined ratio around 100% reflecting 9.5 points of catastrophe losses
 - Auto underlying combined ratio modestly worse than prior year; 3-4 points of improvement in property
 - Combined annuity and life earnings comparable to prior year, reflecting investment interest rate pressure and additional expenses

(1) Operating earnings reflects net income excluding realized investment gains and losses

(2) Operating ROE excluding unrealized gains and losses; 2010 and prior are before the retroactive application of new accounting guidance for deferred policy acquisition costs

Solid financial results have resulted in top quartile book value growth⁽¹⁾ and a compelling dividend yield

Book Value Plus Accumulated Dividends⁽¹⁾

- $27.10 book value per share excluding FAS 115 as of Q2 2016, up 3% from a year ago
- Annualized 2016 shareholder dividend of $1.06
 - Increase of 6% represents the eighth consecutive year for increase
 - Dividend yield of 3.1%⁽²⁾
 - Reflects ~50% payout ratio
- Opportunistic share buyback program
 - Repurchases of $70.5 million since December 2011 at an average price of $25.18 versus VWAP of $26.69 through 6/30/16
 - $29.5 million remains under 2015 share repurchase authorization

(1) Book value per share excluding unrealized investment gains/losses (ex. FAS 115). 2009-2011 numbers have been restated to include the retrospective application of new accounting guidance for deferred policy acquisition costs. Top quartile ranking in peer group includes Large, Mid and Small cap personal lines and life insurance companies

(2) Based on 6/30/16 stock price of $33.79

Capital ratios are strong and reflect more than adequate capital to grow our businesses

(1) 2016 RBC results are estimates

(2) Excluding unrealized gains/losses on investments

- Consistent earnings and conservative bias have resulted in strong capital ratios
 - P&C loss reserves held at top end of independent actuarial range
 - Annuity and Life product design
 - Investment portfolio construction / historical loss experience
- Q2'16 debt-to-capital ratio⁽²⁾ of 18.5%
- Excess capital deployed for organic growth will result in modest ROE expansion

Tools in place to accelerate efforts to profitably grow
